

You Never Show

Been waiting for you at the hideaway
Been waiting for you but you didn't say that you'd never show

I'm learning more from what you don't say You're always telling me it's OK but you never show

Not even Harry Houdini could get out of the things you do
The hurting's all over. I'm over running back to you

You like to say we make a good team
But now your stuck inside an old dream
'cause you never show

Can't hold a grudge if I don't disagree
It's just the way you try to be free and you never show

Not even Harry Houdini could get out of the things you do
Can't stand a good man when he's wearing dollar signs in his eyes
Can't get used to promises if they never arrive

Not even Harry Houdini...
