

Brothers & Sisters (Tension & Time)

On a pale blue dot beyond the stars
On the 3rd stone from the sun
Faster than a bullet through the sky

A sneaky little villain
With a tiny little gun
Smaller than a speck upon your eye

Did you wash the bugs off
Did you buy the spray
Did you tell your momma
She had to stay away
Did you lock yourself inside
And dive into the wine
Brothers & Sisters
Tension & Time

The streets are feeling stranger
Something's lurking in the air
Darker than a soul would dare to tell

A gun goes off around the block
There's panic everywhere
Deeper than the fortune in the well

Did you check the numbers
Did you feel afraid
Did you tell your momma
She had to stay away
Were you feeling bad but just kept saying you felt fine
Brothers & Sisters
Tension & Time

(Parte lenta)

Oh! You're looking so devine tonight
In fact, I'd say you never looked so fine
But uh, you gotta admit it's a little sad
That uh, we gotta do all this online
Feel like my puppet's on the lam
He's burning up in in my hand
Can't wait to smell your subtle breeze
Can't wait to taste between your knees

From the highest perch the vulture chirps with a bullhorn open wide
A shiny paper badge upon her breast

Snitching on her sisters
She strokes her phoney pride
A bitch has got to feather up her nest (try different beat on this last line)

All the fake reactions
All the conspiracies
Did you ask your momma
To see what she believes
Did you end up thinking all the news you heard's a lie
